As part of our efforts to work towards diversity and inclusion at every level, and to ensure that you are being met and welcomed into the programs and courses that most connect with your current and evolving identities and intersectionalities; we would like to offer an opportunity within your comfort of sharing how you identify. Please write in all identities / influences / challenges that you would like us to be aware of:

In-Person Land-Based Instruction

Our Rivers of Solidarity Diploma programs will launch in person at Painted Sky Studio on the Eastern shore of Lake Manitoba, in St. Laurent, Manitoba. In-person classes will be offered between September 3rd – September 8th, 2022, with following classes offered Online during the academic year (mid-September – April). Our return to in-person programming, on retreat, has evidenced its power, where the beauty of the natural world and the power of living in community enhances the therapeutic work. We strongly encourage all students to attend in person if possible. A hybrid option will be made available for those unable to commit for specific reasons.

Will you be attending the September 3rd – September 8th classes in person?

- Yes, I will attend in person
- No, I cannot attend in person and will require a hybrid option

Please check if you will require accommodation and meals (optional)

Shared accommodation on Lake Manitoba is available for $75 + tax per night.

All meals will be prepared and served on site at Painted Sky Studio and are available for $75 + tax per day, or à la carte. This includes breakfast, lunch, dinner, and beverages and snacks throughout the day. Food sensitivities will be accommodated.

- I will require accommodation the evenings of _____ (date) to _____ (date)
